5. After some discussion on this subject the General asked if DIA could draw up a list of targets and a list of indicators which would portray the type of information which would be most useful in the refinement of signatures to aid in the completion of the Order of Battle studies. He stated that he would like to have a briefing on this subject as soon as possible and asked when DIA could have such a briefing ready. DIA representatives replied that they could probably have one ready within 45 days.
